Market News

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The stock market was firm to strong during much of today's session. Developments in the railroad and general indestrial situation prompted further retirement of short contracts.

Bears became more caution.

Bears became more cautious be-cause of the punishment meted out to them in the sharp recoveries of Pullmin and American Sugar, preferred, en contradiction of unfounded rumors. Intimations from well informed sources that rate reductions on foodstuffs and other commodities prob-ably would precede any cut in railroad wages indicated active measures were being taken to avert the threat-ened strike.

insportations held their gains of the last few days and in several inseaper rails, as well as equipments, but steels reflected the poor statecompany, those shares showing for-associalties, almost every issue in that division being stimulated by the improvement in sugars. Among the less of dpartment and chain stores were in demand,
